Johnson Forces Open Drive To Stop Kennedy

Southern Governors Oppose View Offered By Ohio's DiSalle

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Supporters of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas intensified their drive today to stop Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts from snaring the Democratic presidential nomination.

At the annual conference of governors in Glacier National Park, Mont., Govs. Price Daniel of Texas and Buford Ellington of Tennessee organized a Southern caucus for Sunday morning.

The aim was to assess Johnson's chances of defeating Kennedy at the national convention in Los Angeles and to stamp out talk that Johnson has swayed too far from the Southern viewpoint. Some Southerners are angry at him for piloting two civil rights bills through Congress.

In Washington Friday, Johnson supporters claimed he would have 502 votes on the convention's first ballot. They predicted 602½ for Kennedy. To win, 761 votes are needed.

The Johnson people said that their man would swell his total to more than 600 votes on the second ballot and would win on the third.

On the other hand, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle of Ohio, at the governors conference, predicted a first-ballot victory for Kennedy.

Also on the question of convention votes, a Johnson supporter took issue with a statement attributed to Kennedy. The New York Times had quoted Kennedy as telling New York's Liberal party Thursday that he hoped to win the nomination without a single Southern vote.

Oscar Chapman, chairman of Citizens-for-Johnson, called the statement incredible.

"Those of us who support Sen. Johnson for the presidency want the votes of every section of the country."

Democratic Chairman Paul Butler, in Milwaukee for the Wisconsin State Democratic convention, predicted that the party would nominate a candidate in no more than three ballots.

In Republican developments, the Indiana state convention approved a resolution Friday endorsing Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the presidential nomination.

Nixon is expected to get another enthusiastic endorsement today in Roanoke, Va., where the Virginia Republican convention is convening.

Republican Chairman Thurston B. Morton, on the eve of the Virginia convention, predicted Nixon's victory at the national convention in Chicago.

"I don't think with the convention this close there is any chance of nominating anybody but Nixon," Morton said. "I think that."

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has said he would be available for a Republican draft.

In other political news, North Carolina voters pick the Democratic candidate for governor today. Democratic nomination is equivalent to election in North Carolina.

The opponents are Terry Sanford, who supports the state's policy of token integration, and Dr. I. Beverly Lake, a staunch segregationist.

In New York, Democratic State Chairman Michael H. Pendergast resigned Friday as a delegate to the national convention. This opened up a post for former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman.

The Democratic State Committee had refused a post for Lehman, a leader of an insurgent group opposing Pendergast and National Committeeman Carmine DeSapio.

A storm of protest followed the action. In the face of it, Pendergast decided to make room for Lehman.

Kids Find Drug Horde

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police say children playing in a vacant lot Friday discovered nearly 1,000 bottles of antibiotics, worth about $3,000. Officers said there have been no matching reports of drug thefts.

Castro Lashes at Herter In Cuban Sugar Dispute

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro says he is willing to make a million-ton wager on Cuban sugar production with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

The bearded Prime Minister made the statement in a TV talk to the Cuban people Friday night — his eighth major speech in 20 days.

It followed a statement by Herter in Washington to the House Agriculture Committee that experts predict Cuba's sugar production will drop at least one million tons soon. Herter added that this is a good time to diversify U.S. sugar supply sources. The committee has been considering giving President Eisenhower authority to cut Cuba's quota of the U.S. market.

Castro said he would be willing to surrender Cuba's share of the sugar market in the United States if his country's production in 1961 drops a million tons—provided the Cuban quota is increased by a million tons if production increases that much. Castro said the American public is "being fooled" on the sugar situation.

"We can sell sugar to the United States at a cheaper price if they want it," the Prime Minister said. "We can contribute to the lowering of the American cost of living."

The United States is still buying about 3½ million tons of sugar from Cuba, more than half the Cuban crop, and to protect U.S. producers is paying a premium of about 2 cents above the world market price. Since Castro's increasing restrictions on American investors in Cuba, there has been

Girls' State Nearing Its Final Windup

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The week-long session of Buckeye Girls' State winds up today with action on several pending bills and the naming of delegates to Girls' Nation.

Girls' State is an activity sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. It is patterned in all respects, politically and administratively, on state government. Girls' Nation is a similar activity, only on a national level, to be held in Washington later this year.

The Girls' State Senate today will act on a bill, passed by the House Friday, to provide special instruction for mentally handicapped children.

A bill is pending for the governor's signature which would require registration with the secretary of state every three years of all non-profit corporations.

Other bills pending before both houses would permit, but regulate, secret societies in public schools; enlarge reduced speed zones in school areas; and permit masters of Great Lakes vessels to administer oaths in identifying absent or disabled voters.

In her state-of-the-state message to the combined House and Senate Friday, Gov. Ruby Chatman of Cleveland cautioned the legislators to be careful of their spending.

"I remind you," Miss Chatman said, "that we are servants of the people. It is their money we are spending."

She recommended a budget of $2 million dollars with increases in taxes on cigarettes, liquor and gasoline to cover the increased costs of education, mental health, highway construction and safety.

Korean Problems Remain On Anniversary of War

Tornado Winds Leave Mainland

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Tornado winds pushed out over the Atlantic Ocean today, leaving behind scattered trails of damage in the Northeast states.

The Weather Bureau said masses of colder air moving in from the central states and Canada displaced the roaring twisters and ended widespread tornado alarms.

Destructive funnels of wind hit and skipped in Pennsylvania, New York and Vermont Friday night. Alerts went up in New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts. But the Weather Bureau said that except for some possible minor fringe turbulence, the danger was past.

The racing winds ripped roofs, smashed buildings and snarled power lines. No deaths were reported.

Apparently hardest hit was the industrial area of Schenectady, N.Y. Unofficial reports said the damage might run to at least two million dollars.

An emergency was declared in the Schenectady suburbs of Rotterdam and Woodlawn, where the winds cut wide swaths of wreckage. Dozens of buildings were damaged or destroyed.

"It was mass hysteria," cried a woman who escaped from a wrecked grocery store. Some 200 customers fled from the structure as a roof hurled from a nearby building hit in a shower of shattering window glass.

The winds demolished buildings near Glens Falls, N.Y., skipped across southeastern Pennsylvania and hit near Jeffersonville, Va.

In Pennsylvania, the storm, strong enough to throw a car on the roof of a home, hopped around like an erratic top. Farmers described a cloudy funnel more than 300 feet wide touching down and disappearing within minutes.

The winds were accompanied by rolling thunder, hail and heavy rains which washed out some back country roads.

In New England the storm warnings closed businesses and sent thousands scurrying from beaches.

Tornadoes also lashed through Texas, slapping down farm buildings near El Campo and near Ea-

West Recalls Bitter Fight For Freedom

Communists Sound New Demand for 'Yankee Go Home'

TOKYO (AP) — The free world was reminded today—the 10th anniversary of the Korean War—that the armistice which ended the fighting had not solved its problems.

The Communists observed the anniversary with a new demand that U.S. troops pull out of South Korea and other parts of Asia as well.

While all was quiet on the military front, North Korea, supported by the Communist world, trumpeted its demand for a U.S. pull-out in rallies, over press and radio and in a meeting with U.N. command representatives near Pannunjom, where the Korean truce was signed.

But on the Western side, Gen. I. D. White, commander in chief of the U.S. Army in the Pacific, in a war anniversary statement said, "our stand in Korea made clear to all that democracy and freedom are not mere words we speak but a concept of government and a way of life for which we will fight to death."

"The continued physical presence of armed United States, United Nations and ROK troops along the demilitarized zone and elsewhere in Korea is a mighty deterrent to further aggression. Equally as important as the maintenance of our strength is our proven determination to use it when necessary."

Reports from Pyongyang said 300,000 Koreans gathered in the Red Korean capital in an anniversary eve rally Friday and shouted "Yankee go home" demands.

Speakers revived war atrocity charges against U.S. troops and played on the theme that the Korean war was a Communist victory, that American imperialism is the "arch enemy of the Korean people," and if the United States leaves South Korea, North and South can be reunited.

At the town of Sinchun, where Pyongyang claimed U. S. troops "slaughtered" 35,000 Koreans, the government opened a museum devoted to pictures and exhibits of alleged American atrocities.

At a Communist-called meeting of the Military Armistice Commission near Pannunjom, site of the truce signing, North Korean Maj. Gen. Joo Chang-Joon repeated demands for immediate withdrawal of American and all foreign troops from South Korea. He accused the United States of "perpetuating the division of Korea."

The chief delegate of the U. N. command panel, U. S. Marine Maj. Gen. Marion L. Dawson accused the Reds of fabricating charges to cover their own violations.

Communists in other parts of the world joined the North Korean cry as they proclaimed a "joint struggle" to drive the United States out of South Korea.

In Hanoi, capital of North Viet Nam, 10,000 persons gathered and adopted a resolution demanding that "U. S. imperialism get out of South Korea and South Viet Nam."

In Japan, pro-Communist Koreans held anti-American rallies at 60 places throughout the country. An estimated 5,000 met in Tokyo to approve a message of their support to North Korean Premier Kim Il-sung, a resolution denouncing the Huh Chung government of South Korea, and a message to President Eisenhower denouncing the presence of U. S. troops in South Korea.

In Peking, Communist leaders ordered a big afternoon turnout for a "Get-America-out-of-Korea" rally.

Ohio's Farm Prices Show Some Decline

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Department of Agriculture said today Ohio's farm commodity prices were generally lower this week with only a slightly higher hog market to break the trend.

The department said all grains suffered setbacks as the new wheat harvest increased salable supplies of wheat.

Other trends for the week were: Cattle—prices were 50 cents to one dollar lower.

Eggs—prices were firm early in the week but were two cents a dozen lower in late week trading. The production of eggs continues to decline but supplies remain ample to fill the lighter trade needs.

Broiler and fryers—prices were generally steady to firm this week with only a fair demand. Supplies were adequate for needs in some areas of the state, but were in short supplies in others.

The department reported grain prices are not expected to improve with the bountiful supplies on hand, ready for sale at the first sign of any price advance.

Deadman's Corner Mishap Injures 7

"Deadman's Corner" claimed seven more traffic victims today. They were injured in a two-car collision at the notorious intersection of Routes 56 and 159 at Leistville, southeast of Circleville.

Circleville insurance man, Sterling Poling, 43, Route 4, was driver of one of the cars. He was admitted to Berger Hospital with forehead and hand cuts and possible fractured ribs.

Poling was headed west on Route 56 at 7:55 a. m. today when an auto carrying eight persons ran a red light at the corner and rammed into Poling's car, according to Deputy Sheriff Homer Adams and Dwight Radcliff.

At noon today the deputies still were unable to determine who was driving the second car, which was headed south of Route 159.

INJURED, and taken to Berger Hospital, are: Luther Marcum, 40, Cleveland, owner of the car, multiple cuts and bruises, to forehead and both legs, possible chest injury;

Emma Jean Marcum, 25, his wife, expecting baby, suffering from back injuries;

Haward Marcum, 18, Dunlow, W. Va., a nephew, suffering from broken jaw, cut forehead, loose teeth, and shoulder injury;

John Luther Marcum, 4, laceration of the forehead and under left eye;

Marsha Marcum, 6, bruises on left leg, cut on chest and bruises and cuts on right arm;

Robert Marcum, 3, cut on forehead, possible fractured skull, to be transferred to Children's Hospital, Columbus.

Riding in the Marcum car, but uninjured, were Ronnie Marcum, and Roger Marcum, 8 months.

The deputies said that when the driver of the Marcum car has been determined he will be charged with failing to yield the right of way at an intersection.

GOP Senator Raps Critics Of Ike's Foreign Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis) said today there is no truth to charges that any "lack of foresight, or clumsiness in policy planning," by the Eisenhower administration caused the collapse of the summit conference.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, Wiley said, would have torpedoed the conference anyway, even if the U2 spy plane incident had not come just before the Paris meeting.

Wiley's statement established him as a leading Senate defender of the administration's recent actions in foreign affairs. Friday he made public a letter from Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, which Wiley had solicited, in which Herter strongly rejected attacks on the administration's handling of President Eisenhower's canceled trip to Japan.

Wiley's U2 defense was scheduled as a Senate speech today, but Friday night the Senate adjourned until Monday. The prepared speech had been distributed earlier.

The speech was timed to precede release tonight of a 62-page report on the U2 incident by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Wiley is senior Republican member of the committee which conducted a four-day, closed-door probe of the U2 affair. He said he would have something to say later on the committee report.

2 Robbers Take Wallet, Demand Taxi Service

CINCINNATI (AP) — Two robbers not only took his wallet containing $387, said Otis Rushing, they also forced him to give them taxi service.

Police quoted Rushing, 37, as saying he had just cashed two paychecks yesterday when one gunman forced his way into his car and took the money. Then, said Rushing, the man forced him to drive several blocks, pick up a second bandit and drive them to their car.

Ike To End Hawaii Rest Stop Today

HONOLULU (AP) — President Eisenhower ends his six-day Hawaiian rest stop today and flies back to Washington to report to the American people on his controversial Far Eastern journey.

The President is reported to have drafted a hard-hitting speech denouncing the Communists for plotting with young Japanese students to block his visit to Tokyo.

Tanned and refreshed, Eisenhower boards his orange-tipped jet airliner at 5 p. m. HST—10 p. m. EST—on his return flight.

After refueling at Travis AFB in California, he is due to arrive at Andrews Air Force Base outside Washington Sunday morning about 7 a. m. EST, two weeks from the day he set off his 23,000-mile good will trip.

His 30-minute television-radio report to the nation will originate from his White House office at 6:30 p. m. EST Monday.

Eisenhower is reported annoyed at the barrage of attacks on his Far East mission by leading Democrats who have joined in blasting his inability to visit riot-ridden Tokyo as a blow to American prestige.

Eisenhower is understood to have focused his speech on his contention that the visits he was able to make—the Philippines, Formosa and Korea—were "completely successful" in building better relations with these countries.

Here Are Tips On Freezing

Strawberries Peas Need Special Care

BY KOLEEN EWING
ASSOCIATE COUNTY AGENT
Are you ready to freeze strawberries and/or peas but are not sure how to do them? If so, read carefully.

Strawberries: The recommended varieties to freeze are Pocahontas, Surecrop, Darldawn, Midland, Sparkle and Fairland. Select fruits that are fully matured, well colored, but not soft, mushy or over-ripe.

Wash in cold water, sort, remove hulls and slice in half. (Whole small berries may be frozen, but slicing them helps preserve color and flavor.) Gently mix the sliced berries with sugar, using 1 pound sugar for each 4 pounds of berries, with sugar, using 1 pound sugar for each 4 pounds of berries.

Pack into moisture-vapor proof containers, seal and label. Freeze immediately.

PEAS: The recommended varieties to freeze are Thomas, Laxton, Laston's Progress, Freexonim, Wando and Alderman.

Peas should be harvested when the pods are well filled, but the seeds should not tightly fill the pods. The peas should be bright green and tender. For best results, discard wrinkled, dried or discolored pods. Peas should be harvested early in the morning, prepared and put into the freezer within two hours.

Shell the peas and wash thoroughly. If the peas are washed in shallow pans, the immature peas and skins will float and may be skimmed off and discarded.

Scalding Time—Steam: 2 minutes for tender, immature peas; 3 minutes for mature peas. Boiling Water: 1½ minutes for tender, immature peas; 2½ minutes for mature ones. Cool immediately and drain.

Pack the peas in moisture-vapor proof containers, seal and label the packages. Freeze immediately.

For more freezing information contact the County Extension Office.

Do You Know

Farmers are providing America food at costs actually lower than 50 years ago. In 1908, one hour's factory work would buy 2.0 pounds of steak 11.0 loaves of bread, 16.8 pints of milk, or 2.8 dozen oranges, 2.7 pounds of bacon, 3.5 dozen eggs, 2.9 pounds of butter.

In 1929, one hour's factory work would buy 1.2 pounds of steak, 6.4 loaves of bread, 7.8 pints of milk, or 1.3 dozen oranges, 1.3 pounds of bacon, 1.1 dozen eggs, 1.0 pounds of butter.

The farmer's portion of the retail food dollar fell from 53 cents in 1945 to 40 cents in 1958.

In the past 18 years farmers have improved their efficiency more than in the preceding 120 years.

Farm Pond Valuable, but Construction Takes Skill

POND DISCUSSION — Seen above are Casey Neal, on the left, and Ben Nothstine, on the right, as they discuss the construction of a farm pond on Nothstine's recently acquired 50-acre farm in Walnut Twp. The Pickaway Soil Conservation District 4-H Club recently learned that the construction of a pond is a most technical and complicated engineering problem.

SCS 4-H Club members last week were taken to 50-acre farm, newly acquired by Ben Nothstine, Route 1, Ashville. It is located on the Red Bridge-East Ringgold Road in Walnut Twp.

Nothstine was erecting a farm pond for watering livestock. The pond was part of the Agriculture Conservation Program under the direction of the local branch of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation.

All technical responsibility of ACP projects is done by the SCS. It is a cost sharing plan in which the Federal Government pays approximately 50 per cent if the pond owner's use of the pond qualifies.

NOTHSTINE'S Pond is 0.6 of an acre and should average 10 feet in depth. A minimum of any pond should be eight feet in depth to stock with fish, which are furnished free by the U. S. Department of Interior. The fish can be ordered by the SCS.

Once Nothstine agreed to establish a pond, the SCS was called in for the engineering. It first checked the soil for per centage of clay, silt and sand. From this information it can be ascertained if the pond bed will hold water.

All ponds should have at least 40 per cent clay well mixed with other soil materials.

Then SCS made a survey of the pond to determine the proper ratio of runoff. Adequate runoff is 10 acres of water shed per acre of pond. If this ratio is any greater, an automatic spillway is necessary. If it is under 10 acres, one can ordinarily get by with a grass spillway.

If a spillway is needed, and the Nothstine Pond needed one because its ratio is 12 acres to 0.6 of an acre of pond, the SCS engineering worked out the spillway size according to the type of watershed.

SCS designed the livestock water pipe so that it would be primarily automatic and eliminate the necessity of pumping by electricity, which would be expensive, or by gasoline motor, which would be inconvenient.

SCS designed the livestock water pipe so that it would be primarily automatic and eliminate the necessity of pumping by electricity, which would be expensive, or by gasoline motor, which would be inconvenient.

THE livestock water tank will operate by gravity flow with a float valve installed to shut off water when it reaches the proper level in the tank.

SCS recommended that a minimum of 600 lbs. of 10-10-10 fertilizer be used on the fill and it should be seeded with 25 lbs. of Fescue grass.

The pond will be fenced for the protection of livestock and the pond. This is necessary to keep livestock from standing in water which would create muddy waters.

A fence also will keep livestock from destroying grass on the fill and working pond banks into it, plus it affords the pond owner to develop a recreational and wildlife area.

The pond should have a depth of three feet around the edges to keep cattails, willows, algae and moss from surrounding the edges and ruin good fishing. If a person wants to develop a swimming area, he should designate a spot and deposit sand and gravel on the banks of that site.

The entire pond area to be under water must be scalped of all topsoil because of this is not done it will act as a filter and let water escape.

THE TOPSOIL should be stockpiled until after fill or dam is complete. Then it is laid over fill area not under water and will make it much easier to grow a stand of grass. Trying to get grass to grow on subsoil would be extremely difficult.

While the fill is being erected, a core trench is laid in the center of the dam. This is a bulldozer blade wide strip, which runs completely through the center of the fill from top to bottom.

Into this strip is deposited the best clay material to act as a buffer. It will halt water from seeping, lengthwise, through the fill.

At least 50 per cent of the land draining into the pond should be permanent blue grass, woods or non-cultivated land to halt siltation. Nothstine's 12-acre is permanent blue grass pasture.

If land draining into a pond is

CONSERVATION PROBLEM — Here are members of the Pickaway Soil Conservation District 4-H Club on the site of an actual conservation problem, the building of a farm pond. cultivated, siltation and erosion will develop, ruining the pond. It is a known fact that under a heavy rain, 40 to 50 tons of soil per acre will flow into a pond from cultivated areas.

If a watershed has 50 per cent permanent cover, the pond's water will be clear.

IN THE construction of the Nothstine pond, SCS ran into shale, which is quite unusual. But the pond is located in the eastern part of the county where shale is located in spots.

Shale will not hold water. Therefore, Nothstine was forced to cover the shale area with a 1/2 foot of good clay. The thin layer of "Bentonite" was added, plus another 1/2 foot of good material.

"Bentonite" is a recognized pond sealer which expands 80 times its size in water. It is found in Georgia and North Dakota. This material will seek out crevices in the soil.

the pond bed and seal them shut. Sometimes it is spread over the water and will sink, finding leak and sealing them shut.

Nothstine used this sealer as an added protection. Actually, the foot of clay material would have sufficed. The usual formula for covering filtering soil, is one inch of good material per one foot of pond depth.

Water reaches the livestock tank through a pipe laid in the bottom of the pond. It has a four-foot section upright in the center of the pond, inside a barrel of gravel to act as a filter. The upright section of pipe also has numerous holes in it. The pipe extends through the fill, running into the tank.

An overflow pipe will lay along the bank of the pond, with an upright section extending 12-foot from the bottom of the pond and four foot under the top of the fill or dam.

ONCE THE POND water level reaches 12-foot it will drain out the overflow pipe, which extends through the fill to empty at a point south of the fill that will not hamper livestock watering operations.

Two feet higher than the overflow pipe and two feet lower than the top of the dam is a drainage trench. It's width is reached mathematically, depending upon rainfall experiences over the past 50 years.

The trench is located on one side

The pond will hold approximately 1,173,000 gallons of water and will be completely fed by rainfall. Untold hundreds of cattle could be watered from this pond, much more than Nothstine's 50-acre farm could pasture.

He plans to graze 40 head of feed-er cattle. With the addition of the pond, Ben is able to better manage his grassland grazing program and has increased the farm's value tremendously.

Total cost of the project was nearly $1,000, of which the ACP pays half. Ben's pond is one of the more than 125 ponds constructed under the engineering and encouragement of the SCS.

Darby 4-H Team Second

The Ohio Shorthorn and Polled Shorthorn Assn. conducted its annual Field Day and 4-H and FFA judging contest Saturday at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in Delaware.

A Pickaway County beef judging team composed of Nancy Huffman, Larry and Jerry Vance tied for second in the 4-H division. These three 4-H members belong to the Darby Fine and Dandy 4-H Club.

The 4-H division was won by the Marion County Beef Club. The Pickaway County team and the Warren County Beef Club team tied for second. Hopewell Junior Farmers were third, and another Pickaway County team (composed of Ned Musselman, Norman Wilson and Ronnie Jacobs) placed fourth. The fifth place team was the Elm Valley Farmerettes.

Ned Musselman ranked sixth individually in total score for the contest.

The FFA contest was won by the team from Wapakoneta, Ada was second, Union Local third, and Mt. Zion fourth.

There were 46 teams entered in both the 4-H and FFA divisions.

Chance To Work Abroad

Switzerland, enjoying an export boom, is short of skilled labor and has tried vainly to recruit the needed personnel from Greece, Italy and other countries. Now the Swiss are reported to be eyeing the United States as a possible area of recruitment.

There are plenty of skilled workers in the United States, some of them unemployed. In other categories there are scarcities of skilled men and women. Whether skilled Americans, even if unemployed, would be attracted by the going Swiss wage of $250 a month (they say this translates into $500 of American purchasing power) is questionable.

The Swiss, if desperate enough, might offer to pay the moving expenses of entire families willing to work and live in Switzerland. That land has much to offer in scenery and recreation. But few could be found who would care for such an uprooting, particularly in view of the language barriers.

That such a shift of skills from one country to another is a possibility of the future can scarcely be doubted, however. Transportation is almost rapid enough now to permit an American to toil weekdays abroad and spend frequent weekends with his family at home. Enterprizes abroad who want American skills badly enough may provide incomes for long-range commuting.

America is a land of freedom to move about and American workers do more of it than workers of any other country. Not least of the allure of the future may be this movement on virtually a world-wide scale.

U.S. Population Explodes

Preliminary population estimates for the 50 states and percentages of change during the last 10 years offer interesting contrasts and much material for speculation.

California, up nearly five million, had the biggest numerical gain; Florida, with 76.56, the biggest percentage gain.

The census confirms the westward trend of the nation's population balance. Not only the warmer and sunnier parts of the West are moving ahead. Washington gained 18 per cent and Oregon 15, and Arizona's 71 per cent is surpassed by Alaska's 74.

The growth of the West is not at the expense of the East, as shown by Maryland's 31 per cent increase. Connecticut gained 25 per cent and New Jersey 24.

The Census Bureau puts the 1960 total at approximately 179.5 million, an increase of 28 million, or 18.5 per cent since the 1950 census. It was the biggest 10-year gain in the nation's history.

West Germany Needs Workers

Employment, it seems, can be more than full. It can be full and overflowing. The surge of prosperity in West Germany has created a labor scarcity. So keen is the demand for labor that the government is importing it.

In the first five months of this year 43,000 foreigners, mostly Italians, went to West Germany to take up work found for them by the ministry of labor. An additional 13,000 foreigners found work without government help. Now the government is looking for 100,000 more workers and is searching Italy, Greece and Spain for them.

To grasp the full meaning of this surging prosperity in West Germany, refugees from East Germany must be taken into account. They, too, have been absorbed by the labor market and have averaged this year more than 10,000 a month, mostly as a result of the enforced collectivization of farms in East Germany.

If prosperity continues at its present level the labor scarcity may not be solved for a few years. During the war and the years of chaos the birth rate in Germany was relatively low and this is responsible for a scarcity of young workers.

This is a picture of one of the countries in the European Common Market. At the last count there were 3.5 million unemployed in the United States and 500,000 in Canada. The contrast is sharp enough, particularly when it is realized that it is only 12 years since West Germany reformed its currency and began to rebuild in the midst of war ruin.

There was something to strive for, and that seems to be an essential for success. It remains to be demonstrated whether prosperity will prove as invigorating, or whether it will result in flabby muscles and uninspired contentment.

Time To Probe State Department

By George Sokolsky

Recently our country has encountered three major international setbacks:

1. Cuba; 2. The Paris Summit Conference; 3. President Eisenhower's visit to Japan.

The State Department is the agency of our government responsible for formulating foreign policy, for evaluating data which come to it from many sources; for knowing in advance what events are likely to transpire. The most important men in this mechanism are the deskmen, usually junior officials who are specialists in particular areas or matters and whose reports and memoranda eventually reach those who finalize policy.

The State Department is therefore the responsible body that must answer to Congress and to the American people for whatever errors, misinterpretations, incompetence led to the disasters associated with the events. If the men at the top are badly informed, it is the deskmen who passed on incorrect data. The alibi usually is that a man used his best judgment. If his judgment is no good, he should not hold that job.

First, the Cuban disaster. Our Ambassador to Cuba at the time that Fidel Castro seized power by revolutionary means was Earl E. T. Smith. When he was appointed to this office, he was briefed as to State Department policy by officials of the Department and Herbert L. Matthews of "The New York Times" who has the reputation of favoring revolutionary groups in Spain and in Latin America.

Smith, who is a knowledgeable person, reported back to the State Department on the Communist characteristics of the Castro movement. His reports were ignored. Smith was retired because he was opposed to the extensive support given to Castro by the State Department which was principally responsible for putting Castro in power.

The personnel of the State Department responsible for the American policy in Cuba were Roy R. Rubottom, Jr., assistant secretary for Inter-American Affairs, and William A. Wieland, director, Office of Caribbean and Mexican Affairs.

Second, prior to the holding of the Paris Summit Conference, I and others wrote that it would come to nothing. Therefore, it is not hindsight to say that there was ample information available to indicate that Khrushchev would have to find a way out of that meeting.

In fact, various broadcasts from Moscow foretold failure. Nobody could have foretold that Khrushchev would have attacked Eisenhower with such brutality of language and manner but there was ample evidence in Russian, Red Chinese and other satellite literature to indicate the course of Russian action.

In charge of the desks in the State Department dealing with the Summit Conference and the President's trip to Russia were Hugh S. Cumming, Jr., director of Intelligence and Research, T. Achilles Polyrides, director of Current Intelligence Indications, Charles E. Bohlen was adviser on Russian Affairs, Edwin M. J. Kertzmann, deputy assistant secretary for Domestic Affairs.

Third, the Eisenhower visit to Japan. I do not know enough about the current handling of the data from Red China and Japan in the State Department. Years ago the Far Eastern Division in the State Department was one of the most competently organized and staffed.

Dallas Baptist Church Likes Crowded Downtown Location

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Should downtown churches move to the suburbs to get away from unsightly housing and cold business buildings?

No, says the Rev. Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor of the biggest Baptist church in Texas.

In fact, the Rev. Dr. Criswell's First Baptist Church of Dallas is sinking its roots even more deeply into the area around Ervan and San Jacinto streets in the shadows of skyscrapers.

And it sends buses into nearby low-income districts to bring more underprivileged people to church.

The emphasis is on youngsters. The church has become a haven for boys whose bare feet show through tattered shoes and girls who stare wide-eyed at the church's beautiful paneled walls.

First Baptist is worth about 10 million dollars, which makes it one of the wealthiest churches in the nation.

Recently, it paid a million dollars for a building across the street to add to its extensive facilities, which include a gymnasium, bowling alleys and a skating rink.

The work among the underprivileged is supervised by First Baptist's Good Shepherd Department.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Truman is away out of step with the presidential candidates of his own Democratic party.

Just a few days ago Truman made a plea for bipartisanship in foreign policy. He said he'd fuss with President Eisenhower "on local affairs but on foreign affairs people ought to back him up."

But before and after he said it the Democratic candidates were already lining up to Eisenhower's handling of foreign affairs, making it clear that they consider foreign policy a major issue in the 1960 campaign.

The one candidate who'd be happy if all Democrats shared Truman's view is Vice President Richard M. Nixon who, since he was so much a part of the Eisenhower administration, will have to defend it from attack.

There's Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, majority leader of the Senate Democrats. Until recently he was playing the role of the great pacifier and spreader of oil on troubled waters. He tried to quiet Senate criticism of foreign policy after the U2 plane incident.

But Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democrats' front-runner for the nomination, wouldn't listen and went along merrily blasting Eisenhower's handling of foreign affairs.

Johnson, either because he changed his mind or thought he'd better get moving if he hoped to stop Kennedy, began booming the foreign policy issue himself.

Now he's calling the Eisenhower foreign policy a policy of "drift" and is accusing the administration of a "depressing lack of new ideas."

On June 14 Kennedy not only went after the Eisenhower foreign policy but produced a detailed foreign program of his own.

He said the real issue of foreign policy is: "The lack of long-range preparation, the lack of policy planning, the lack of a coherent and purposeful national strategy backed by strength."

"As a substitute for policy, Mr. Eisenhower has tried smiling at the Russians; our State Department has tried frowning on them; and Mr. Nixon has tried both. None have succeeded."

Thursday night Adlai Stevenson, who refuses to say he's a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination but still won't take himself out of consideration, seemed to be wearing two hats.

He said both parties should keep Premier Nikita Khrushchev out of the campaign. He said the Russian's aim "is American weakness and disunity."

But almost immediately, as if he were having second thoughts, Stevenson said there is a need for a full and frank discussion of the international situation. How this can be done without bringing Khrushchev into it is, at the moment, a Stevensonian secret.

Even Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, Truman's choice for the Democratic nomination, has been critical of the Eisenhower foreign policy.

So among Democrats Truman, whose own handling of foreign policy was roundly assailed by Eisenhower in the 1952 campaign, stands alone in avoiding criticism of Eisenhower on foreign affairs.

Not even New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who'd like to get the Republican nomination, has kept quiet on the subject. He's made it clear he definitely thinks American foreign policy needs improving.

Nixon, as the Republican candidate, may offer some new ideas on foreign affairs but he is not in much position to criticize what's happened in the past. As he said himself last June 11:

"I've been a part of this administration for the last seven and a half years. I'm proud of that record, and instead of running away from it I intend to run on it and to build on it."

What is a good man? The question is answered in Luke Chapter 6 verse 45. "A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good". Church of Christ will study this theme together Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

This type of person is an all around good man. There are those in the scripture that are counted among the honor roll of men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus. These men received this goodness from God and not from themselves. Men, women and all young people need to live a good life. Live a life that will maintain your self-respect and live for God. We shall study the life of one that is spoken of as a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. May this study help us to be good.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Alaska and Hawaii History Discussed at DAR Meeting

The annual June luncheon meeting of the Pickaway Plains Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution met at 1 p. m. Tuesday in the Pickaway Arms.

Sixty-five members and a guest were present to hear Miss Betty McCoy speak on Alaska and Mrs. Dane Ellis, Kingston, speak on Hawaii.

Mrs. R. Rae Bales, chaplain, returned thanks and Mrs. Richard Hedges, regent, called the meeting to order which was opened in ritualistic form by the regent, assisted by Mrs. R. Rae Bales, chaplain.

Mrs. Beckett, flag chairman, led in the Pledge of Allegiance which was followed by Mrs. Martin Cromley, state chairman of American Music of the Ohio Society, reading one verse of the National Anthem.

Miss Dibel Renick read the president's general message taken from the June-July issue of the D. A. R. Magazine.

At this time Mrs. Hedges extended a cordial welcome to all members and their guests and asked each member to introduce their guest.

A motion was made and seconded that the reports of the secretary and treasurer be dispensed with at the meeting.

Legislative committee, Miss Alice Ada May and Mrs. Paul Cromley, magazine chairmen, gave reports. Mrs. Cromley told the members it was time to renew their subscriptions to The D. A. R. Magazine and The D. A. R. News.

Mrs. Florence Brown, national defense chairman, gave a five-minute report. In her report she asked the members if they knew that Foreign Aid, including the interests, is costing American tax payers ten billion dollars annually.

In writing the representative in Congress, the following facts are pertinent: Foreign Aid handouts have not arrested communism; Foreign Aid handouts serve to socialize the recipient countries; and the American taxpayer deserves relief, while European economy flourishes and taxes have been reduced.

Miss Brown continued by reading from a pamphlet "Know the United Nations". At this time Mrs. Forest Croman, program chairman, was introduced. In introducing Mrs. Stanley Beckett, flag chairman, Mrs. Croman said in June we always remember Flag Day. In planning the program for this meeting we thought it would be interesting to follow through on the subject of The flag, since for the second time recently our flag was changed by adding two new states. In her talk Mrs. Beckett said The flag of today represents many centuries of development. Probably no other inanimate object has excited so great an influence over the actions of the human race.

Our nation's flag flies 24 hours a day at seven places in the United States and at Taos, New Mexico it has flown continuously for 99 years. It was on June 14, 1777 when the stars and stripes came into existence and since then 50 stars have been added to represent the 50 states, our two new ones, Alaska on last July 4, 1959 and Hawaii which will fly on July 4, 1960.

Mrs. Beckett continued by saying, "Truly it may be said that the sun never sets on the flag of the United States."

At this time Mrs. Croman introduced Miss Betty McCoy who spoke on "Alaska, 49th state." In her introduction Mrs. Croman stated, "So we have added two new states and I think we should know more about them."

Miss McCoy told many facts about Alaska. It was on March 29th 1867 a treaty was signed and so Alaska, an Aleut Indian word meaning "Great Land" came into our possession. In her talk Miss McCoy said for those who would like to see the conditions that brought forth the better qualities of our pioneer ancestors your last chance is Alaska, America's last frontier.

Alaska dares not remain dormant much longer. Problems typical of every frontier community must be overcome. A glance at the map shows the strategic position it occupies. I think we all feel more comfortable knowing that Alaska belongs to our side and not to its original owner, Russia.

Mrs. Dane Ellis, Kingston, and past regent of the Nathaniel Massie Chapter, D. A. R., Chillicothe, was introduced by Mrs. Croman.

Mrs. Ellis gave her talk in the native costume of Hawaii which is called the "Moo Moo". Mr. and Mrs. Ellis went to Honolulu to visit their son Col. John Ellis and wife who is a marine and is stationed at the Kaneohe Air Base. In her talk Mrs. Ellis said Mark Twain has described Hawaii as the loveliest fleet of islands that lies anchored in any ocean. Hawaiian Islands come closer to describing the situation as there are 23 islands, eight of which are inhabited. Hawaii is the largest.

Rain in Hawaii stays mostly in the mountains which are always lush green. There 50,000 members of the armed forces on Oahu and 20,000 civilians work with them. There are 640,000 people who live in Hawaii; Japanese, Chinese, Korean, and Portuguese. In her talk, Mrs. Ellis said, "the Chinese make all the money, the Japanese do all the work, the Portuguese do all the talking and the Americans sit back and enjoy it." Mrs. Ellis continued by saying that the island is beautiful with its fields of orchids, the gorgeous hibiscus and many other beautiful plants and tropical trees.

Although the cost of living isn't cheap it is a veritable paradise. We should be proud of our 50th state.

Guests attending the meeting were from Columbus, Kingston, Chillicothe, Ashville and Circleville.

The hostesses were, Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, chairman, Miss Mary Heffner, Mrs. Christian Schwarz, Mrs. James Moffitt, Mrs. Kermit Dountz, Mrs. Charles May, Mrs. Eliza Plum, Miss Margaret Dunlap and Mrs. Paul Matthews.

The couple's attendants were Miss Karen Vincent of New Holland and Mr. Richard Hall of Washington C. H.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was attired in a street length dress of summer blue with which she combined white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Miss Vincent wore a pink floral dress and accessories with a white corsage.

Circleville, Ohio

Elks Top Coke In Extra Innings

The Elks battled back into undisputed first place in the Little League majors last night with an 8-4 extra inning victory over arch-rival, Coca Cola.

In other major league action, Ralston Purina won a 21-10 slugfest from The Herald. In minor league play, the Jaycees maintained their domination of first place with a thumping 34-9 victory over Lincoln Plastic and Savings Bank edged Blue Ribbon Dairy, 10-8.

Buddy Strehle racked up his third straight victory last night as the Elks rallied in the sixth to tie the score 4-4 and went on to win in the seventh.

Elks jumped into a 2-0 lead in the first when Joey Leatherwood knocked in two runs after Ken Palmer and Terry Campbell had walked. Coke tied the score in the third on four errors.

THE JETS took the lead for the first time in the fifth when Steve Dade reached first on an error. Ricky Congrove and Chester Hill followed with singles to shoot into a 4-2 margin.

Not to be outdone, The Elks rallied for two markers in the top of the sixth as Strehle and Leatherwood, thorns in Coke's side all night, walked. Daryl Reichelderfer's single was the damaging blow.

Strehle and Coke starter, C. Hill, were forced to leave the mound in the seventh due to a LL rule that no pitcher may hurl more than six innings a week.

George Hill took over for Coca Cola and was rocked immediately. George Watson opened the inning with a triple, which was followed by walks to Palmer and Campbell. Strehle iced his own contest with a two-run triple and Leatherwood and Reichelderfer came up with one-run singles.

Bobby Dean relieved Strehle in the bottom half of the inning, fanning two and getting C. Hill to ground out, second to first. In six innings, Strehle walked one and whiffed eight. Dean fanned two.

Chester Hill issued six free passes and struck out 12. George Hill walked three and fanned one. The Elks committed six errors to Coke's three. Doug Thompson had Coke's only extra base hit, a triple.

THERE WAS no doubt in the Purina-Herald contest as the Millers jumped off to a commanding lead and coasted home. Gary Leasure was the victor, striking out seven and walking two.

Danny Gibbs absorbed the defeat. He and reliever, Joe Winner, walked five and fanned three. Leading hitters for Purina were Douglas Pontius and Leasure, with a double each. Phil Smith with two doubles and Jim Bowser with a triple.

Billy Weldon and Jim Strous poked two-baggers for the Herald as Rodney Hedges and Steve Gilmore smashed triples. Purina out-hit Herald, 16-7. The Herald committed three errors to Purina's five.

The Jaycees wasted no time in convincing fans of its mastery of the minors last night as they blasted out 20 hits, seven for extra bases, on the Southeast Playground diamond.

Ty Ankrom went the route for the JC's whiffing six and walking eight. Mike Martindale started for Lincoln Plastic, giving three innings. He walked three and fanned four.

Bill Pritchard finished up, issuing four free passes and striking out four. After being held to a 3-3 first inning tie, Bill Ankrom's explosive nine tallied nine runs in both the second and third stanzas to put the contest on ice.

LEADING JAYCEE hitters were Tom Fletcher, 4 for 6 with a triple and home run; John Wright, 3 for 5; and Bruce Weethee, 4 for 4, with two doubles. Mike Melson and Allen Black also had two-baggers. Martindale and Tom Goeller were the top slugging stars for Plastic, hitting 3 for 3. Both had a double apiece. Gregg White contributed a double and Jack White poled a triple.

Plastic ran up 12 miscues in the field to the Jaycees' five. Ankrom's squad now is 6-0 on the season while Plastic drops to 3-3.

Savings Bank moved into a 1-0 lead in the first inning and maintained the edge on ever-fighting Blue Ribbon to gain its fourth victory in six outings. Mike Young was the winner as Justice was charged with the defeat.

Young fanned six and walked eight. He was relieved in the fifth by Tom Cassill, who walked six and whiffed three. Justice went the route for Blue Ribbon, striking out two and issuing seven free passes.

Robert Young and Bob Walisa hit doubles for Savings Bank. Justice and Crabtree hit two-baggers for Blue Ribbon. The Dairyman out-hit Savings, 8-5.

Little League Pitcher Fans 18 Straight

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio (AP)—It didn't look too promising when 12-year-old Jimmie Graham gave up a hit to the first batter in his Little League game here the other day.

But Jimmie, a five-year LL veteran, settled down then — and how!

He proceeded to not only retire, but strike out 18 consecutive batters to complete the six inning game with an 18-0 shutout.

The 5-5, 110-pound youngster, son of a Mount Vernon News printer, has never lost a Little League pitching decision, having captured eight straight in two seasons on the mound. When he does not pitch, Jimmie is the league's best catcher.

He has pitched 22 innings this season, striking out 49 batters, giving up only five hits. He has a no-hitter and two one-hitters to his credit.

Young Graham's 18 consecutive strikeouts is certainly a National Little League record. In a regulation six inning game, it couldn't be exceeded.

Rawls Sets Pace In Western Open

CHICAGO (AP)—Betsy Rawls, the defending champion and the year's leading money winner, again was in the driver's seat as the 31st Women's Western Open Golf Tournament headed into its third round today.

The last to finish over Beverly Country Club's wind-swept acres Friday, Miss Rawls matched par 73 to weave a halfway total of 149 and a three-stroke lead.

Next at 152 was Mary Lena Faulk, another of the many ranking pros seeking the tropic plum of $1,313 in the $7,500 medal play event.

The National Assn. of Engine and Boat Manufacturers now has 426 member companies.

Orioles Stick To Heels of Leading Yanks

Baby Birds Edge
KC '9' as Bombers
Pour It on Tribe

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It begins to look like those Baltimore Orioles, a bunch of baby birds and some old pros, are going to hang in there in the American League pennant race. They just don't quit.

They trailed by five runs Friday night, then scored in each of the last six frames for a 6-5 victory at Kansas City that kept them within a half-game of first-place New York. The Yankees, with Tony Kubek driving in five runs, blew a 5-0 lead at Cleveland, but beat the Indians 10-6 for their seventh victory in eight games.

The Chicago White Sox beat Boston 2-1. Detroit defeated Washington 4-0, behind right-hander Jim Bunning's three-hitter.

In the National League, Pittsburgh regained a 3½-game bulge with a 4-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs as Wilmer Mizell put away his first complete game in 14 tries this season. The Los Angeles Dodgers ended Milwaukee's winning streak at six, beating the second-place Braves 5-3 in 10 innings with reliever Ed Roebuck allowing just four hits in nine shutout frames.

San Francisco ended its slump at five games, defeating Cincinnati 5-3 with Willie Mays hitting two home runs and driving in three runs. Philadelphia made it six straight, clipping St. Louis 4-3.

The Orioles, coming from behind for the second straight day, tied the A's on Gene Woodling's eighth-inning homer, then won it on Brooks Robinson's single and Clint Courtney's double. Hoyt Wilhelm was the winner with 1½ innings of hitless relief for a 5-4 record. Ray Herbert (3-7) was the loser. The A's got their runs on Jerry Lumpe's grand-slam in the second and Norm Siebern's solo homer in the third. It was Baltimore's 18th victory in 23 one-run decisions.

Kubek belted two homers and then lined a two-run single as the Yankees broke a 6-6 tie by scoring four in the seventh off losing reliever Johnny Klippstein (1-3). Kubek's single was the only hit of the rally, built on two walks, two errors and Mickey Mantle's sacrifice fly. Johnny James (4-0) won it in relief—with the help of a running, leaping stab by Roger Maris that robbed Tito Francona of a bases-loaded homer in the sixth.

Jim Landis, White Sox center fielder, also pulled off a beauty, reaching into the bullpen for Ted Williams' ninth-inning smash to save Bob Shaw's first victory in three weeks. Landis also drove in the clincher with a sacrifice fly in the second inning off Bill Monbouquette (6-7).

Bunning (5-4) allowed nothing but singles, checking the Senators on a safe bunt after the second inning. He walked none and struck out six, taking over the AL lead with 97.

High School Star Hurler Is Signed by Redlegs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Dale Shuey, 18-year-old former pitching standout for nearby Deer Park High School, has signed a contract with a Cincinnati Reds farm team. A team spokesman said Shuey, who had three no-hitters as a high schooler, was signed for a substantial bonus and will go to the Reds Palatka, Fla., farm team.

Teen-Age High Jumper Hits Mark of 7 Feet, 2 Inches

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP)—John Thomas, a young man with spring in his toes and summer on his mind, today has a new claim to lay before the high tribunal of high jumping.

The long, lean teenager from Boston University cleared 7 feet, 2 inches at the National AAU Championships Friday night, becoming the first jumper in history to scale that height outdoors.

But the summer is just beginning for the handsome, 19-year-old Negro, who will enter what he calls "the big one" next week and an even bigger one at the Rome Olympics in August.

Next week's show is the U.S. Olympic tryout final at Palo Alto, and Thomas' chances of qualifying are just about unqualified.

The AAU meet, a generally unspectacular affair except for the towering leap by Thomas, winds up this evening. Sprinter Ray Norton, of Santa Clara, who won the 100-meter finals Friday night, is performing near his peak and could steal much of the show with a victory tonight in the 200. Thomas took three shots at 7-2. He appeared to make it on the second, but the bar came down moments after he did. The judge said Thomas made it, but AAU track and field Chairman Pincus Sober overruled him.

Thomas wouldn't say he cleared the standard easily on his third try. "But I didn't just make it over either," he said.

Sober, the first man to reach Thomas after the successful jump, said: "There's no question about it this time."

"I just had to make it," Thomas said later.

The second time, he said, "I cleared it and the wind knocked it off I felt bad for a minute."

Thomas, who has gone 7-2½ indoors, said the last jump took so much out of him that he didn't feel like trying for anything above 7-2.

Asked how high he figures he can go in the next few years, Thomas responded elusively: "I can keep going up until I miss."

John's jump was a full inch better than the recognized world record, set by Russia's Yuri Stepanov in 1957, and a quarter of an inch better than Thomas' previously pending outdoor record. His indoor mark cannot be recognized.

The only other man to come really close to world record Friday night was hammer thrower Hal Connolly. Connolly had a sore back—so sore he pulled out before the finals—but in one of the heats he heaved the ball and chain 224 feet, 4½ inches—just 1½ inches short of the world record he set here two years ago.

Norton won the 100-meter dash without trouble in 10.5, four tenths of a second off the world record.

Parry O'Brien defeated rival short putters Bill Nieder and Dave Davis with a throw of 62 feet, 6¼ inches. Parry's recognized world record is 63.4 and Nieder has a pending record of 65.7. Nieder putted 62-6 with a sore leg heavily bandaged.

Glenn Davis, who holds the world 400-meter hurdles record of 49.2, won the event in 50.1.

The chief disappointment was Bobby Morrow's failure to qualify in the 100. Morrow, who won gold medals in both the 100 and 200 in the 1956 Olympics, has a chance to qualify in the 200 tonight.

Snead-Palmer Rivalry Seen Winning Canada Cup for U.S.

PORTSMOUTH, Ireland (AP)—A grim individual rivalry between Arnold Palmer and Sam Snead could well fire the United States to its first team victory in the Canada Cup golf tournament since 1956.

Even Irish fans have noticed that Snead is going all out to beat Palmer, reigning U.S. and Masters champion, in the race for the individual title and Arnold is just as anxious to outshine Sam.

The rivalry inside the American team could give the Yanks their first victory since Ben Hogan and Snead paired in a Canada Cup team triumph four years ago.

On the first day Palmer shot a 69 and Snead a 71. Friday Sam rallied with a 68 and Palmer took a 71.

This was enough to give the Americans a three-stroke lead over Ireland going into today's third round. Palmer and Snead have a combined score of 279 after 36 holes. The Irish have a team score of 282. South Africa is third with 284 followed by Australia with 286.

Snead is 48, winner of more than 100 tournaments, and a legendary figure in the game. Palmer is 30, and moving in on Snead as a world favorite.

They exchange information politely on the links but not beyond the call of duty.

Palmer once gave Snead some advice on a shot in the team championship and then said to a friend: "Why should I be helping old Sam? After all we're playing for an individual prize, too."

Snead is tied with Belgium's Florin Van Donck in the battle for the individual title.

Snead has 71-68-139 and Van Donck 68-71-139. Then comes Palmer with 69-71-140 and Gary Player of South Africa with 65-75-140.

Steamin' Demon Chalks Trot Mark

YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Steamin' Demon, owned by George W. Van Camp of Circleville, Ohio, established a Yonkers Raceway record of 2:00 2-5 in the $25,000 Purdy Trot Friday night.

The old record of 2:01 1-5 was set June 20, 1957, by Jean Laird. Steamin' Demon, 5-year-old son of Demon Hanover, pulled out from the rail at the three-quarters mark and went on to a 1½ length victory over Su Mac Lad. Silver Song finished third. Ramire, the 9-5 favorite, broke stride and finished sixth and last.

The winner, unbeaten in three starts, paid $6.70. George Phalen was the driver.

Only rookie pitcher with the Detroit Tigers is Bob Bruce.

Montreal Tops Columbus, 6-4

And here comes Richmond!

The Virginians, riding an eight-game winning streak, have moved into contention in the International League pennant race and are threatening to break up the Toronto-Buffalo ticket that has dominated the circuit most of the season.

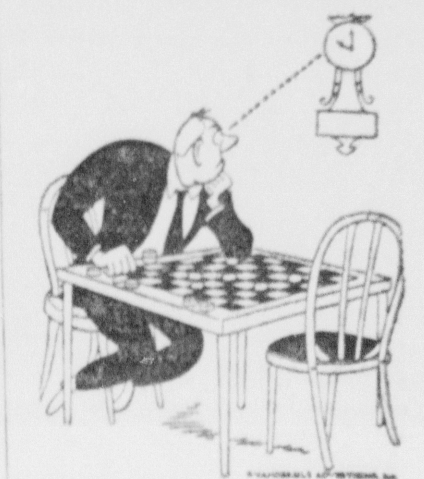

Home runs by Deron Johnson and Fritz Brickell powered the Vees to a 9-2 triumph over the league-leading Leafs Friday night and enabled them to close within seven games of Toronto. The victory also moved them to victory two games of the second-place Bisons, who were shutout 2-0 at Miami by Herb Moford.

In other games, Havana blanked Rochester 3-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Miguel Cuellar and Montreal defeated Columbus 6-4.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Sour Milk or Sour Marriage?

DEAR ABBY: Our milkman is a handsome young man about 30 and he's so nice I hate to hurt his feelings. I gave him my back door key to let himself in and put my milk in my refrigerator.

My husband says the milkman is supposed to leave the milk outside the door. He is raising quite a fuss about it, too. I like to sleep mornings and don't want the milk to get sour; that's why I gave him a back door key. My husband has no reason to be jealous of the milkman but I believe he is. Should I ask the milkman for the key and tell him to leave the milk outside or what?

LOUISE

DEAR LOUISE: Better to have sour milk than a sour marriage. Your husband's wishes outrank the milkman's feelings. Get the key.

DEAR ABBY: Some friends invited my husband and me to dine at a roadside cafe. The four of us ordered steaks. Just as I started to eat mine I noticed a dead fly on it. I pushed it back and asked my husband to order me another one. He refused and traded steaks with me. I told him he shouldn't eat it either, but he said it didn't bother him. I lost my temper and we had a few words.

By this time people at other tables were taking it all in and started voicing their opinions. Some were with me and some were with him. Our host insisted on ordering another steak. Do you think I was wrong to mention the dead fly? Or should I have brushed it off and eaten the steak anyway?

SQUEAMISH

DEAR SQUEAMISH: Telling "What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hook Getting Experience With Redlegs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Young Jay Hook has been rightly tabbed one of the Cincinnati Reds' bright chances for a pitching star of tomorrow.

But he still has a few things to learn about, such as the gopher ball.

Three home runs Friday night—two of them to high-hitting Willie Mays—were the costliest hits taken from Redleg pitching in a 5-3 victory by Los Angeles.

Hook had kept out of trouble until the sixth inning when—pow—two home runs in a row.

Hook, at age 23 a studious young man who yearns to improve himself, admits he still tries in the late innings.

Earlier this year, however, he pointed out that "the most I pitched in one stretch this spring was five innings."

Both sides snatched off two runs apiece in the first inning.

Mays, the big man of the Giant attack, singled in one run and after Willie Kirkland singled, scored on a double steal.

Cincinnati made up the deficit with Gus Bell's two-run homer, after Eddie Kasko singled.

In the sixth, Mays led off with his first home run and Kirkland followed with a duplicate. Mays' second home run headed the eighth.

Cincinnati couldn't get another rally going until the ninth when Dutch Dotterer walked and Roy McMillan singled.

Mike McCormick, the Giants' starter, had to turn the job over to veteran John Antonelli. The latter got Jerry Lunch to ground into a double play, although one Cincinnati run came in.

The second game between the two in this series comes today with Redleg pitcher Cal McLish opposing Billy O'Dell.
